By Way of Introduction.

Between the covers of this little book all that can be tabulated,—set down in figures and held by printer's ink,—of a church year is put into your hands. It has been—by the revelation of statistics—a year of growth. We have gained, though not substantially, in membership. A clear gain of eight is better than standing still and much better than retreat, but it is not a thing to boast of. The Sunday School has mended its record of a year ago and has made a substantial advance in average attendance, in enrollment and in spirit. The school has grown this winter for the first time in four years by the considerable incoming of new scholars. In many ways it is in better form and temper than common.

The financial reports show a nominal loss of $40 as against last year. As a matter of fact we have given almost $400 more for actual benevolence than last year. The main loss is in the local work of the Woman's Association. Last year the work in the chapel increased the revenues and expenditures of that department. We are still fortunate in the numerical growth of the parish. The task of incorporating into our church life those who now are attached in some fashion to our fellowship is great in its possibilities and its obligations and is the master task of the First Church.

The web of the year is inter-wrought, as always, of light and shade. Ours is no permanent fellowship. There are those who walk with us now for the first time. There are those whom we knew to love who will walk with us no more on earth forever, and there are times when the shadows of separation, shot through with light, almost disclose their secret, the Church militant and the Church triumphant cease to be distinguishing terms and one may not surely say whether the real fellowship of a Church like ours is here, or in the many mansioned city.

Nor does one need to say that the finer things in our Church life escape tabulation. The brotherhood, the vision, the penitence, the strengthened purpose, the surer knowledge of God, the more immediate communion with the Master, the sense of the eternities, and all the graces and discipline sprung by the grace of God from our fellowship and increasingly wrought into manhood or womanhood—of these there is here no hint. And yet they are real as statistics and reports, and vastly more abiding.

We are face to face at last with the memories, opportunities and obligations of our centenary. We are on our way to a summit of dual vision. Looking backward across the reach of a hundred noble years we shall read the story of God's goodness; looking to the future we face the challenge of the years to be. God give us the courage of our opportunity.

Minutes of the Annual Church Meeting.

The Ninety-Ninth Annual Meeting of the Church was held in the chapel at 7.30 o'clock, on Thursday evening, January 14th, 1904, with the Rev. G. Glenn Atkins in the chair. The meeting was opened with a short song service followed by prayer by the pastor.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

The report of the Clerk for the year 1903 was read and by vote approved and ordered on file.

The Treasurer presented his report, which on motion was accepted and ordered on file.

The following reports were then presented in the order given:

The Sunday School, by Superintendent W. B. Howe.

The Woman's Association, Local Work Department, by Mrs. C. M. Smith.

The Woman's Association, Home Missionary Department, by Mrs. W. J. Van Patten.

The Woman's Association, Foreign Missionary Department, by Mrs. J. E. Goodrich.

The Work of the Adams Mission, by H. S. Howard.

The Young People's Alliance, by Dr. G. E. Partridge.

The Men's League, by H. S. Howard.

The Woman's Auxiliary on Bethesda Room at Mary Fletcher

Hospital, by Mrs. E. H. Powell.

These reports were collectively accepted and ordered on file.

The committee appointed January 7th to nominate officers for the coming year, submitted the following report:

Deacons to serve six years—Henry Todd, Edward P. Shaw.

Members of Standing Committee—Rev. J. E. Goodrich, Gen.

O. O. Howard, William J. Van Patten.

Clerk and Treasurer—William H. Wood.

Assistant Clerk and Treasurer—Mrs. Clarence L. Smith.

Auditor—Charles E. Pease.

Superintendent of Sunday School—Willard B. Howe.

Assistant Superintendent of Sunday School—W. H. Wood.

Secretary of Sunday School—Merton C. Grandy.

Treasurer of Sunday School—Clarence L. Smith.

Auxiliary Committee—Mrs. E. H. Powell, chairman; Miss Mary C. Torrey, Mrs. Susan A. Allen, Mrs. J. S. Patrick, Dr. Sue E. Hertz.

Members of Corporation, Home for Destitute Children—Mrs. W. B. Howe, Miss Florence Lyman.

Committee on Adams Mission—Harry S. Howard, Mrs. H. S. Peck.

By vote of the Church this report was accepted and the Clerk was instructed to cast a ballot for the persons named therein, and they were declared duly elected.

A communication was read from the "Standing Committee and Heads of Departments of Church Work," containing two recommendations: First, that the Church appoint a "Centenary Committee" to plan and arrange for a proper observance of the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of this Church, which occurs in February of 1905; Second, that the Church unanimously adopt the Individual Communion Service, and that a committee be appointed to procure the same. These recommendations were presented and discussed separately, and in each case the Church voted their acceptance and adoption, authorizing the pastor to appoint such committees as would meet the requirements of the recommendations.

There was read a Letter Missive from the Broadway Congregational Church of Norwich, Conn., inviting this Church to be present by its pastor and one delegate at an ecclesiastical council called to meet in Norwich, Conn., January 19th, 1904, for the purpose of examining and, if deemed expedient, ordaining to the Gospel Ministry, Edward Strong Worcester. On motion this invitation was accepted and Charles P. Smith was elected to represent the Church with the pastor.

After a retrospective and prospective view of the life and work of our Church, by Mr. Atkins, the meeting was adjourned to the parlors where a social hour was spent, with refreshments served by the ladies.

Much interest was taken in the plans for the proposed changes in the church building which were shown at this time.

Report of Clerk.

As we enter upon the one hundredth year of the life of this Church, we should be grateful to the Founder of the Great Church for His merciful goodness to us in all the years now past; and be filled with more of His Spirit and love for mankind, that the important period in our history, now so near, may be so met that His name may be glorified and His kingdom more and more established in this community in which He has set us. The record of our Church for the year just closing shows a gain in membership, while the year's history testifies to the harmony and brotherly love which exists between our members, a condition which is not confined to our own Church circle, but spreads out over our neighboring workers in God's cause. One evidence of this is found in the very helpful and inspiring services held by the two Congregational Churches of this city during the Lenten season and Passion Week. This series of services, followed so closely by the work of Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, constitute two of the more prominent features of religious work of the year.

Children's Day service was observed June 14th, and six children were presented for baptism. The week in October immediately preceding the November communion, was observed at a Week of Prayer, instead of the first week in January, a change greatly appreciated by several men of our Church, as evidenced by their regular attendance upon the meetings. The week was surely one of spiritual blessing.

At the Chittenden County Conference of Congregational Churches and at the State Convention of Congregational Churches we were represented by the pastor and appointed delegates.

Of the new form or "Order for the Admission of Members," which may be found on the last pages of this book and was first used at our last communion service, it is unnecessary to comment. That it adds greatly to the impressiveness of the service, no one will deny, and to the statement that it brings the hearts of the people and the new members closer together in Christian love and fellowship, we are all glad to give assent.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

The present enrollment of the Sunday School is 211, a gain of 12 over last year. The average attendance for the past year was 144, as against 118 the previous year.

Four scholars earned Bibles by a record of perfect attendance. These are Hazel Cilley, Frederick Colbath, Ruby Howe and Samuel Loomis. Five earned a Testament by a record of but one unexcused absence. These are Phillips Beil, Ruth Grandy, Frederick Smith, David Howe and Arthur Fassett. There are also eight who were absent but two Sundays: Mary Loomis, Sophia Loomis, Isa Appleton, Gertrude MacBride, Ruth Fraser, Bessie Newell, Frederick Bell and Daniel Grandy. Laurence Atkins and Edward Wood were absent three Sundays, and Charles P. Smith, Jr., four Sundays.

Most of those teaching a year ago have continued, although the following have resigned during the year: Miss Mary Bates, Mr. J. S. Wright, Jr., Mrs. John Gibson, Miss Julia Smith, Miss Helen Langdon, Miss Anna Reynolds and Miss Bessie Child. Two teachers are absent for a time, Miss Lyman, who has sailed for Europe, and Miss Flora Russell, who is spending the winter in California.

The new teachers now at work are Mrs. J. N. Jenne, Miss Jennie Stacy, Dr. Sue E. Hertz, Mrs. Edward Robinson, Miss Gertrude Powell, Miss Grace Roby, Miss Flori Patrick, Mrs. T. R. Andrews, Miss Myra Andrews, Miss Eliza Beth Winter, Miss Cora Eames and Mr. Milo Gibson.

The following members of the Sunday School have united with the Church during the past year: Miss Ruth Reynolds, Miss Mildred Reynolds, Miss Georgiana MacBride, Miss Myra Andrews.

The Church voted in the autumn to defray all ordinary expenses of the Sunday School and thus permit the offerings of the scholars to be devoted to benevolent and missionary objects. This new plan ought to increase the missionary spirit of the young people.

The school has just begun the study of the Old Testament. This is a good time for many adults to join the Sunday School.

The school is fortunate in the loyalty of its scholars and the fidelity of its teachers. No department of the Church does better or more far-reaching work. We need primarily more men and women in the school.

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S ALLIANCE.

The Young People's Alliance has enjoyed a very helpful, fairly well attended series of meetings during the past year. Most of the meetings have been led by our pastor and the young people have been given advice applicable to practical every-day Christian living, which the youngest of them could easily understand and apply.

The Missionary Committee has held a series of meetings, at which papers prepared by members of the Alliance dealing with the Mediæval history of the Christian Church were read.

The social condition of the young people has been well cared for by the Entertainment and Social Committees in a number of very enjoyable socials.

The Friendly Committee has distributed literature to the charitable institutions of the city, and Thanksgiving dinners to the poor.

Department of Woman's Work.

REPORT OF LOCAL WORK.

The Local Work Department of the Woman's Association of the Church is doing its usual good work along its different lines. Three sociables were held, one in January and two in February, which brought us $89.26. There were local benevolences, Home Missionary boxes, etc., to be provided for out of this money and the membership fees, which left us at the close of the year with a balance of $20.63, receipts having been $392.68.

At the annual meeting in October, the ladies voted to make the Church sociable more distinctively a Church gathering by doing away with the regular Church suppers, having in place of them light refreshments, with some entertainment, and asking no admission fee. These have been very successful in bringing the people together in a more social way, and the majority prefer this to the old method, but whether or not it will be a financial success, remains to be seen at the close of the year.

The Calling Committee numbers twenty-four and is one of the most important committees of the Society. It is doing excellent work and through its efforts we are becoming better acquainted with the members of our congregation.

REPORT OF AUXILIARY COMMITTEE.

The Bethesda room has been used by members of the First Church twice during the year for a few weeks each time. The occupants have expressed great satisfaction in the room and in the attention received. The committee would call attention to the fact that it is very necessary for those deserving the room to make early application for the same, as it is used by the Hospital at all other times and cannot always be at our command on short notice, although when that is not possible, arrangements can be made for the care of the patient elsewhere, though that must be done before entering the Hospital.

Department of Missions.

REPORT OF ADAMS MISSION WORK.

The work at the Adams Mission has been prosperous this year, and our Church has done its share in supporting this excellent institution in our city.

A change has been made in the methods at the Mission, which so far have worked satisfactorily. The Tuesday night religious meeting is omitted, and the leaders from the churches conduct each week a cottage prayer meeting held in the homes of the people attending the Mission. Some good results are shown through these efforts and by the regular services held Sunday and Friday evenings. The Sunday School is well attended with about fifty regular scholars. Greater stress has been laid this year upon the Social Settlement feature of the whole work. On Monday evening of each week Mrs. Keefe and Mr. Chiott, missionaries in charge, keep open house, inviting young and old to spend that evening at the Mission Home. A committee from each church and from the students of the University provide some entertainment or games, which, with simple refreshments, have proved very popular.

The Girls' Club is learning basket weaving under the charge of Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Lamoreux. The Boys' Club is doing well in manual training under the direction of Mr. E. L. Stone. There are also Men's and Women's Clubs. Mr. Fitzsimmons conducts a Bible study class Wednesday evenings, having over forty on his roll, and an average attendance of over twenty each week. The usual Thanksgiving dinners to the adults and children were given to over a hundred each; and Christmas exercises with presents were held for the Sunday School.

While all departments of this work have been so active and successful, the Mission is hampered for want of funds. The First Church is urged to more generous contributions this year.

HOME MISSIONS: WOMAN'S WORK.

The first meeting of the year, January 22d, was one of unusual interest as Mrs. Woodbury of Boston was present and gave, in her unique fashion, a comprehensive sketch of Woman's Work under the American Missionary Association; seventy-six ladies were present and an enjoyable social hour followed Mrs. Woodbury's address.

This department has added during the year nineteen new members, making a total membership of one hundred and one, with an average attendance at the meetings of twenty-seven. The pledged work for home missions, in which the women of the Congregational churches of Vermont are interested, is so varied that the subjects considered at the meetings have been of unusual interest. In February, the Immigration problem brought out some very bright papers, and in March this subject was concluded with information from our own Bohemian and Slavic workers, Marie Reitingger and Marie Zoltax, and a general survey of the workers and field of the foreign department of the Congregational Home Missionary Society. We have journeyed from the home of our missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Camfield in South Dakota, to the school at Lehi, Utah, in the very heart of the Mormon population, where our teacher, Mrs. Harling, is principal of the academy, from which, during the past fourteen years, some of the best teachers in the public schools of Utah have graduated.

It is a long distance from Lehi to the black belt of Georgia, where the school at McIntosh, with its three hundred and sixty pupils, is demonstrating what can be accomplished by faithful and patient endeavor to train these colored boys and girls for useful service for their race. That this is being done, the results of the past eighteen years in which we have been interested in this school, prove conclusively. The school in the mountains of Tennessee, Grand View, gives us another instance of self-sacrifice in the lives of Professor and Mrs. Hoyt, who, with their four children, are daily demonstrating to the children of the Mountaineers the beauty and strength of the true Christian life. This school is one of the finest among the mountains.

In November, interesting papers were prepared on the subject: The Negro in 1865 and 1903. This month we shall learn of Congregational Missions in Porto Rico.

The amount of money sent during the year, secured by membership fees and contributions, is $284.91. Five Missionary boxes, prepared and sent out, were valued at $311.79. As good second-hand clothing is contributed and the valuation put quite low, it will be understood that these boxes are the sources of much comfort to those receiving them. The clothing sent in the McIntosh boxes is not given away by the teachers at the school, but sold to the families whose children attend. Eggs, chickens, bacon, or sweet potatoes are often offered for these articles, the teachers thus inculcating the principle of self-support, even though the article bought is more valuable many times than the price paid. The money used for the boxes is a grant from the treasury of the Woman's Association, with occasional extra contributions from some of our members. The outlook for the year in this department is encouraging for increased interest and growth.

FOREIGN MISSIONS: WOMAN'S WORK.

There are eighty-eight members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society from the First Church. Six being received during the last year and two having removed from the city. The amount of money received, including regular fees and the thank-offering, was $390.75.

Eight regular and two extra meetings have been held, with an average attendance of forty. The study has been on India, using as a text-book, Lux Christi. Excellent papers were read at every meeting on subjects such as "Buddha" and "Buddhism," "The British Rule in India," and "Caste, and its Effects." Some afternoons were devoted to the political history of the country, and to some characteristics of the people. Papers were read on the "Entrance of Christianity, its Growth and Present Conditions." It is safe to state that the meetings have never been of so high a literary character, and it is proved that a missionary meeting can be as interesting and instructive as a woman's club. The results of this careful work have been a larger attendance, more interest, a clearer knowledge and greater gifts. Since the new method of study, with a prepared program, was adopted, many ladies have found that missionary literature can be delightfully interesting and readable.

The great fault in our Burlington Auxiliary, is the lack of increase in membership; our number grows too slowly.

The topic to be taken up in 1904, is China, physical, political and religious, with something on medical and educational work, and some glimpses of our present opportunity there.

A meeting was held in February, by request of the officers of the Board, for special prayer, and the few who came were most certainly compensated by a very uncommon spiritual uplift. The usual thank-offering meeting came in November, and the amount of money brought in was $82.00—$63.50 from the First Church. In January last, by invitation from Mrs. Buckingham, one hundred and forty ladies met at her house. The State President, Mrs. Fairbanks, was there for the purpose of addressing us. She urged more earnest work, more self-denial and more reading on missionary matters; but above all she came to emphasize the all-important call for an increase of 20 per cent in our offerings. She sounded a note of warning, lest the women suffer it to be a transferring of funds from the regular pledged work, which would mean nothing gained.

The treasurer reports that our Auxiliary met the new demand with the desired increase.

Still our motto next year should be to "lift a little harder." It is well to recall what Mr. Sheldon has said, that "the smallest word to-day, in the English language, is 'self,' and the biggest is the word 'service.'" And he said "Paganism consists in all you can get out of the world, Christianity, all you can put into it."

REPORT OF WILLIAM HAZEN, MISSIONARY OF THE CHURCH, SHOLAPUR, INDIA.

(Mr. Hazen's report, received in January, has been mislaid. The substance of the report is given below, with some statement of the beginning of Mr. Hazen's work.)

The Rev. William H. Hazen, Missionary of the First Church in Sholapur, India, is a graduate of the University of Vermont and was, during his college course, a member of the First Church Christian Endeavor Society. Three years ago the Church assumed Mr. Hazen's salary and he went to India as our representative in a parish half around the world. The first year of his residence in India was taken up largely in getting the language and getting acclimated. He went out at the end of the great famine when all the missions were more than burdened with relief work and care of orphans, and gradually assumed, as his share of the work, the supervision of the boys' boarding, industrial and educational work. Two years ago he wrote:

"My school work has grown as I have been able to perform it, in fact keeping considerably in advance of the time and strength needed. From going into school to inspect, I went on to advise and direct, and grasped one by one the details of school management. At the same time, I have found more and more to do with the boys at home, and in the other parts of the work. Now Mr. Gates has turned over to me the charge of the boys' boarding, and I overlook to some extent also, the industrial work. All this means that I have to pay some fifteen teachers, besides various workmen and women. I handle the money which is used to buy food and clothes for the boys, and it amounts to a goodly sum. On the first day of the present month, I paid out about 550 rupees ($180) for salaries and other bills for the month of January, and other sums were paid out from time to time during the month."

Mr. Hazen has taken over more and more the responsibility of this educational work until he is now the head of a school of about 200 boys. The work is industrial, educational, religious. Educationally, the standard of the school has been raised to meet certain government tests until now it must be something like a combination of grammar and elementary high school. An expert in rug weaving has lately been secured from Bombay and now the boys are weaving what Mr. Hazen says, is a fair quality of Indian rug.

Of the details of his own life, he writes:

"But I must tell you a few of the details of the work here. Do you ever try to imagine what the work of a missionary is like? I have seen missionaries engaged in nearly every sort of work, manual and mental, and one soon feels the demand for every faculty he possesses. The habit of the native is to depend on the 'sahib' for everything, and there is nothing which does not go on better with the frequent personal attention of the missionary, from the building of houses and planting of gardens to the direction of schools and churches and preachers. We wish often that we could leave these small details to others, but it is hard to get others to feel the responsibility, and so our days are full of questions and requests from one person and another. Just now, I rise daily at six, and go to conduct prayers for the boys. Then after "chota Haziri," the first light meal of the day, I try to spend a few minutes in inspecting two classes of small boys that have their school on our veranda. Then I spend an hour or more in attending to sick boys, dressing various bruises and sores. After this business is over, I may sit down for a few minutes to study, before breakfast at half-past ten. Between that and lunch at three, I spend some time in school, visiting as many different classes as I can, have boys come to me at recess time with various requests, get a short nap, and perhaps get letters ready for the mail. Every day will have its different round of things to be done. At four, I usually go to school to conduct gymnastics and drill, and then have some time free for recreation. Evening is the time for writing letters, making up accounts, studying, and conference with the other missionaries. This outline gives little idea of the multitude of things that clamor to be done."

Mr. Hazen emphasizes the complexity of modern missionary work. A Missionary Station is a "power house" whose real dynamic is spiritual and whose ends are the establishment of the Kingdom of God, but whose methods are as various as the intricate Indian life and as wide as the reach of human need. His own station is a little island in a sea of humanity, one missionary to hundreds of thousands of natives. His chief is Mr. Gates whose supervision covers a wide area. Of course native workers are enlisted and every effort is made to incorporate Christianity into the life of the people. Conversions mark the progress of the work and the real problem is not fruitlessness—the mission work is more fruitful than any home work—but the vast disparity between the work to be done and the agents to do it. Mr. Hazen finds India a land of contrasts and surprises with an old and intricate life. The climate imposes constant moderation in effort. The mission work and life as he reports it, is interwrought of light and shade but he is content in it and the First Church is glad of so consecrated and efficient a Minister in its parish over the sea.

Department of Men's Work.

REPORT OF THE MEN'S LEAGUE.

The Men's League, after two meetings last winter, continued its organization through the year, and held its annual meeting December 2d, 1903, at which time its officers were elected for the ensuing year. A very enjoyable dinner with speeches was held at the close of the annual meeting. Rev. Mr. Albright, pastor of Pilgrim Church, Dorchester, Mass., was the principal speaker, and he gave an excellent address on the "Best Methods for Conducting Men's Clubs in Churches," and particularly the success of his own club at Pilgrim Church. About seventy-five men of the Church were in attendance. President Buckham spoke on the "Help the Church is to the College and what the College Does for the Church." Mr. C. P. Smith, Mr. E. P. Shaw and Mr. Atkins also spoke on the "Kind of Church they Would like to Have." Mr. W. H. Wood, as leader, presided.

For the coming three months, the Entertainment Committee of the League, are arranging to hold a monthly meeting, with an address on some interesting business topic by a business man. The League has been a means of getting the men of the Church together and better acquainted.

THE ORDER OF MORNING SERVICE.

Organ Meditation.

The call to prayer.

Minister—My soul looketh for the Lord, more than watchmen look for the morning;

People—Yea, more than the watchmen for the morning.

Minister—The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him;

People—To all that call upon him in truth.

Minister—The Lord bless thee out of Zion; even he that made heaven and earth...Let us pray.

The Invocation.

Minister—Be Thou exalted, O God, above the heavens.

People—Let Thy glory be above all the earth.

Minister—Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us.

People—According as we have hoped in Thee.

Minister—*O Lord, let Thy presence be manifested among us.
Shine Thou in our hearts.*

People—To give the light of the knowledge of Thy glory in the face of Jesus Christ.

Minister—Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight.

People—O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

THE ORDER FOR THE ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

USED BY THE FIRST CHURCH IN BURLINGTON.

The Minister:

Dearly beloved, called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ our Lord, you are here, that in the presence of God and His people, you may enter into the fellowship and communion of this Church, taking upon you the vows of membership with us, and the covenant of watchfulness and help according to the commandments of our Lord. It is meet and proper that you should come humbly and contritely into the Master's fellowship, and I ask you, therefore, to join with us in confession of sin, seeking with us from the God of all tenderness His forgiveness.

The People and the Candidates, with Bowed Heads:

O God, searcher of hearts, from whom our sins cannot be covered, we humbly confess that by our manifold transgressions, we have provoked Thee to cast us off from Thy favor and fellowship. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. Behold, we return unto Thee, our God, seeking Thy pardon. Forgive us, we beseech Thee, forgive Thy people whom Thou hast redeemed with the most precious blood of Thy dear Son. Create in us clean hearts, vouchsafe unto us Thy heavenly grace, lest we turn again to folly; and grant, O most merciful Father, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Thy holy name. Amen.

The Minister:

Accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by this Church—and set forth in a creed—and the Churches of our order, will you humbly and heartily make confession of your faith, joining with ancient saints, with the church throughout the world, and with us, your fellow believers, saying:

The People and Candidates Standing:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,

Born of the Virgin Mary;

Suffered under Pontius Pilate,

Was crucified, dead, and buried;

The third day He rose from the dead;

He ascended into heaven,

And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;

From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;

The Holy Catholic Church,

The communion of saints;

The forgiveness of sins,

The resurrection of the dead;

And the life everlasting. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say to those who have been Baptized in Childhood:

Dearly beloved, inasmuch as you have, in times past, received the sacrament of baptism, it is needful that you now renew and confirm all that others then did in your behalf.

I ask you, therefore, if you now accept for yourselves the seal of baptism into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, to which faith and love brought you in childhood?

Response—I do.

Then Shall the Minister, Laying his hand upon the Head of each of those Baptized in Childhood, say:

By thine own choice, and upon thine own confession thou, N——, art set apart to the service and glory of the same God to whom thou wast consecrated in the baptism of childhood.

Then Shall the Unbaptized Present Themselves.

The Minister:

You who now enter into the everlasting covenant of grace do humbly yield yourselves to baptism as the token of the new life wrought in you by the Holy Spirit, and as the sign of your purpose to be forever the Lord's.

Response—I do.

Then Shall the Sacrament of Baptism be Administered.

Then Shall all the Candidates, with those who are to be Admitted by letter, Stand before the People.

The Minister:

Dearly beloved, you have been baptized into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, confessing the faith of Christ before witnesses, and have given yourselves to God in His covenant of grace. You do now covenant with this Church: that you will walk with us in all Christian faith and love, following the example of our common Lord, showing forth His doctrine in a holy life, keeping the sacraments with His saints, and giving for the necessities of His Kingdom: that you will be loyal to the interests of this Church as long as you remain members of it: that you will share its service, bear in love and coöperation its burdens, wait upon its opportunities, deepen its fellowship, and, in all things, be "Good Soldiers of Jesus Christ" to the end that His Kingdom may come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Do you thus covenant?

Response—I do.

Then shall the Members of the Church Rise and Say:

We, the members of this Church, do now welcome you into our communion. We promise to pray for you, to watch over you, and help you. God grant that loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared while we dwell together on earth for the perfect fellowship of the saints above. Amen.

The Minister:

"Now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone, in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth into an holy temple in the Lord."

"The Lord bless thee and keep thee: the Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace." Amen.

The People and the Choir:

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.
